Church of England School
Headteacher: Mr A J Wilcock MA (Cantab)

26th September 2013

Dear Parent/Carer

Business Studies

I am sure you are aware that there has been an issue with the Business Studies teacher for your child. We did appoint a replacement for Ms Solomon at the end of the Summer Term but unfortunately he withdrew at the very end of our school term.

We interviewed a number of candidates and appointed an experienced teacher, who, because of personal circumstances, felt she could not commit to the rest of this term. Consequently, we have spent the last week interviewing other suitable candidates and appointed Ms Persaud, a very experienced Business Studies teacher.

We will be advertising the post of Head of Business Studies next week with a starting date of 1st January 2014 (the earliest someone in another post could begin).

I apologise for the disruption during the first two weeks of the new year but am confident that the situation will now settle.

If you do have any other continuing concerns please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours faithfully

Mrs C Watson
Deputy Headteacher
