Dear Parent/Carer,

Year 10 English Literature Entries

This is to let you know that we have entered the students in the small set taught by Mrs Woods for their GCSE Literature exam this year.

They will sit the two papers in May this year, not in Year 11, enabling them to focus on the content of Literature this year and then on their GCSE English exam next year. We hope also that the material students have studied will remain fresh in their minds if they sit the exam this year.

To this end, over the next two half terms, students will be revising their set texts which are: 'An Inspector Calls', 'A Christmas Carol', the poetry anthology and 'Macbeth'. Students will do this in class and for homework and should ensure they re-read these texts at home too. Audio files are available online to help them read the more difficult texts.

Mrs Woods will also be providing additional sessions for students to attend after school on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays each week.

I hope you will support us in this process by ensuring your son/daughter is working well at home and attending an after school session each week, and by talking to them about sitting the two exam papers that make up the Literature GCSE. Mrs Woods and I are confident they will be able to do their very best and that completing this GCSE early will enable them to focus on one subject at a time, giving their energy to Literature this year and English next year.

Mrs Woods will be happy to discuss things further at the Year 10 Parents Evening, this evening, Thursday 22nd February. If you have any concerns, please feel free to contact either of us on cwells21.312@lqflmail.org or kwoods.312@lqflmail.org.

Yours faithfully,
