Dear Parent/Carer,

Additional Website used in Mathematics

In order to support your son/daughter with targeted material to improve their understanding of work, the Maths Department will be making use of an additional website to the Mathswatch and Mymaths websites that we currently use. The new website that we will be using will be www.Dr.Frostmaths.com.

For the Dr.Frostmaths.com website, students will need to register with their school emails via a link that will be sent via the Show My Homework website. It is important to note that the school email must be used rather than a personal email address.

If there are any questions with regard to the above sites please feel free to contact me at pkelly@bishopramsey.school.

Yours sincerely,

Mr P Kelly
Head of Mathematics
